

INTRODUCING
DARUL QASIM COLLEGE'S RAMADAN SERIES

IN THE WILLOW'S SHADE

DARUL QASIM
COLLEGE

This Ramadan, we invite you on a journey into the past, present, and future of Darul Qasim College, an institution of higher education that offers its students the highest standard of knowledge acquisition in the field of Islamic Studies.

In the Willow's Shade is a series that highlights the high academic rigor and intellectual acumen found inside this space—a space we refer to as “The Willow's Shade.” Teachers, researchers, students, and all who walk through its doors are transformed intellectually, spiritually, and morally.

Furthermore, our faculty routinely engages in critical inquiry, producing highly specialized, interdisciplinary Islamic Studies research in the fields of Bioethics, American Law, Philosophy, Theology, Archaeology, History, and many more.

In this series, we showcase our erudite departments and the dedicated, well-trained faculty that bring to life an Islamic Studies curriculum, pedagogy, and methodological approach that is rooted in representing and re-presenting a synthesis between Revelation, Reason, and the Natural World.

Stay tuned for Part 1 of
In the Willow's Shade:
“The Story of the Willow Tree”

with Shaykh Mohammed Amin Kholwadia,
President of Darul Qasim College

